*BE DISCIPLES OF CHRIST.
MAKE DISCIPLES OF CHRIST.*

THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

Today's Readings

First Reading:

God exalted him at his right hand as leader and savior to grant Israel repentance and forgiveness of sins. (Acts 5:31)

Psalm:

I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me. (Ps 30)

Second Reading:

"To the one who sits on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honor, glory and might, forever and ever." (Rv 5:13)

Gospel:

Jesus said to them, "Children, have you caught anything to eat?" They answered him, "No." So he said to them, "Cast the net over the right side of the boat and you will find something." So they cast it, and were not able to pull it in because of the number of fish. (Jn 21:5-6)

Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these?" - John 21:15

Dear Friends,

Today we are treated to this powerful and emotional passage from John Chapter 20, in which Simon Peter meets Jesus after his resurrection, and has this healing and reaffirming encounter with him. Peter, who denied Jesus three times as Jesus was going to his death, is given this opportunity to reaffirm his faith and love for the Lord. "Do you love me?"

I think one of the most poignant moments in this passage is Peter jumping into the sea when he learns that Jesus is on the shore. He rushes to Jesus and is reconciled with him. His vocation is reaffirmed.

The call of Jesus is irrevocable. Peter is sent forth to "feed my sheep." Peter is also reminded that there will be a cost to following this call. "When you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will dress you and lead you where you do not want to go."

St. Peter is a realistic model of discipleship. He hasn't perfected it, but he will at the end of his life when he willingly accepts crucifixion and death out of his love for Jesus and for his people. God's grace enabled him to do this.

Another of the Apostles, our patron saint, James the Lesser, also gave his life for love of Jesus and his people. Today we celebrate his feast day. (His feast, shared with St. Philip the Apostle, is actually May 3, but we can transfer it to the nearest Sunday because he is our parish patron).

St. James is known as the son of Alphaeus in the Gospels. It is believed that he is called "the Lesser" because was either younger or shorter than James the Greater, not because he was less important!

James was instrumental in the Council of Jerusalem in 50 A.D., which ruled that the Church was open to all and that all people could be saved by living as followers of Jesus.

St. James, pray for us!

God bless you,

Fr. Ed

NEWS AND UPDATES

VIBRANT GENERATIONS

All households at St. James are being asked to consider a campaign commitment. When prayerfully considering your best pledge, remember to consider the pledge over time. This allows families more flexibility to budget their contributions in monthly, quarterly or annual payments.

Five-year pledges help ensure we can meet our parish's campaign goal and fund the needs of our parish. Each family can determine the timing and frequency of the payments and choose a method best for them.

Dear St. James,

As the school year comes to a close, it is with bittersweet sentiment that share I will be stepping down from my role as the Director of Youth Ministry at the end of this month. While I am thrilled to return to the world of event planning, stepping down from this position was a decision that was not easy to make. Being a youth minister, your youth minister, has been one of the greatest blessings of my life, and I am truly grateful for all our Life Teen, EDGE and St James School families, past and present.

I heard in a homily once that our God is a God of interruptions. We might be living a good and faithful life, but sometimes He calls us to take a turn to go on another adventure with Him, to say 'yes' to an invitation to join the Lord in something greater. A couple months later, I was approached about a Youth Ministry position at St. James. Since then, it has been an incredible journey with you all, and I am forever thankful to our God of interruptions for the invitation to jump back into ministry.

Over the years, I have been side by side with Core Team members, volunteers, teachers, parents, and families who have supported, prayed for, and encouraged the New Evangelization to take root among our youth. It has been an honor and a pleasure to serve along side you all. I leave this position as the Director of Youth Ministry with a heart full of gratitude. The future is bright for our Life Teen, EDGE and St. James School youth, and I can't wait to see how the Lord continues to use Dora Mendoza, Corey May and Josh Jones to lead our ministry efforts to transform the lives of our youth in the years to come.

To the youth of St. James: Stay close to Jesus (John 6:68), and stay close the Church (Acts 2:42) because like St. John Paul the Great tells us, "Life with Christ is a wonderful adventure."

St. James, pray for us.

With gratitude,

Christina Hudson

Loaves & Fishes Ministry Says Thank You!

We have completed another season of serving the homeless in the Uptown Neighborhood of Chicago at two shelters:
Sarah's Circle - women's shelter
NorthSide Housing for Men - men's shelter

Our Loaves & Fishes Ministry has supported these shelters each year, October-April for over 30 years. We provide a dinner of soup and bread for Saturday and a bagged lunch for Sunday.

Loaves & Fishes wants to thank all those who gave generously of their time, talents, treasure, and especially for all the prayers. Many individuals made lunches and others volunteered to pick up donations of soup and bread. Other volunteers gave up their Saturday evenings to deliver food to the shelters. THANK YOU! We have been blessed by all who participated in this ministry.

Thank you to businesses who donated soup and bread for 125 homeless people on a regular basis. Soup was donated by Cooper's Hawk, Egg Harbor, and Peggy Kinnane's. Bread and pastries are donated by Central Continental Bakery in Mount Prospect. Their generosity is beyond words. Please consider patronizing these establishments.

If you'd like more information on this ministry for the 2025-2026 season please email stjameslandf@gmail.com.
