*BE DISCIPLES OF CHRIST.
MAKE DISCIPLES OF CHRIST.*

THE FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today's Readings

First Reading:

God will comfort and restore His people with peace, joy, and abundant blessings like a nurturing mother.
(Isaiah 66:10-14c)

Psalm:

Praise God's mighty deeds; He hears prayers and rules with power.
(Psalm 66)

Second Reading:

St. Paul reminds us to boast only in Christ's cross; through it we are made new. Peace and mercy are given to those who follow Him.
(Galatians 6:14-18)

Gospel:

Jesus sends out seventy-two disciples to proclaim God's kingdom. He instructs them to offer peace and healing to all they meet while relying on God's provision.
(Luke 10:1-9)

Dear Friends,

Just a few days ago, we celebrated the 249th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. That famous document begins with the following words:

"When in the Course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.--That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed."

As many of us know, the Declaration of Independence then goes on to list the legitimate grievances which the colonies hold against King George III, and then to declare their independence from Great Britain. The Declaration goes on to affirm the United Colonies' dependence on Divine Providence.

Since that day in 1776 when the founders gathered to assert our independence, our American federation of States has continuously striven to successfully and equitably carry out the American experiment, with varied levels of success.

We ask God's blessing upon our Republic, and pray that we are always aware that our rights come from God, and our government derives from the consent of the governed. May God preserve our freedom, and help us always to work for justice.

God bless you,

Fr. Ed

 SAINT JAMES PARISH
ARLINGTON HEIGHTS

PATH TO SUNDAY

July 6, 2025 • 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Why do Catholics display crucifixes rather than empty crosses? The answer lies in what the crucifix proclaims. First, when St. Paul boasts only in, “the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ” (Gal 6:14) he never imagines a bloodless beam. For him “the cross” always means the suffering Lord—“we preach Christ crucified” (1 Cor 1:23). A crucifix makes that invisible proclamation visible: yes, Christ is risen, but the victory was won through a real death freely offered for us.

Second, the corpus reminds us at once of the price of sin and the immensity of divine love. Gazing on the Crucified we recall that, “Christ suffered for sins once, the righteous for the sake of the unrighteous” (1 Pet 3:18). Healthy guilt is not morbid; it can lead to repentance. And repentance is necessary if we want to receive God’s forgiveness.

When forgiven, we should respond with gratitude. Like the debtor who loved the creditor more after forgiveness (Lk 7:41-43), we love God more deeply because we see what redemption cost Him. Ultimately, the image of Christ Crucified is a reminder of the radical love God has for us.

Third, the crucifix keeps our eyes fixed on salvation, not self-help. Some preachers promise earthly blessings in the sense of health and wealth, yet St. Paul—martyred for the gospel—trained, “to win an imperishable crown” (1 Cor 9:25). Christ on the cross tells us discipleship is costly (“Jesus said to his disciples, ‘Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me’” Matt 16:24).

The empty tomb tells us that discipleship is worthwhile. Faced with that contrast, we must choose Christ over the fallen “world” that was crucified to Paul and to us (Gal 6:14). Far from denying the Resurrection, the crucifix anchors Christian hope: the Lamb once slain now lives—and invites us to follow.

Reflection Questions:

- When you look at a crucifix, what personal meaning does it hold for you?
- Do you find yourself more drawn to the comfort of the Resurrection or the challenge of the Cross?
- How can you cooperate more intentionally with God’s grace in your life, like St. Paul and the other apostles did?

Statement of Cardinal Cupich

on the passing of
Sister Rosemary Connelly, RSM

Sister Rosemary Connelly, RSM who devoted her life to serving our sisters and brothers went home to our Father on June 19, 2025. For more than seven decades as a religious Sister of Mercy, Sister Rosemary gave proof to the principle that every person is created in God's image and worthy of respect and dignity. A fearless pioneer in making that core value real in the lives of the people she served and their families, she created innovative programs and gathered the resources to bring them to life. Renowned for her indefatigable work ethic, she was an irresistible advocate who raised awareness about the challenges and inequities facing people with disabilities. In doing so, she altered the existing paradigm, shaking society from prejudices that had governed decisions for centuries.

Sr. Rosemary enlisted many thousands to support her mission. She changed their minds and opened their hearts and taught them to see people with disabilities as worthy of everything they needed to live fully. It was simply hard to say no to Sister Rosemary because she was not asking for herself, she was asking for common human decency toward people often seen as "less than" or "other."

While she received numerous awards for her work, we will remember Sister Rosemary foremost as the heart of the Heart of Mercy. We vow to carry on her work and invite all to join us. [As we recently celebrated] the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Memorial of the Immaculate Heart of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we give thanks to God for Sister Rosemary's heart, her amazing life, outstanding leadership, and steadfast love.

"Let us go to the house of the Lord!"

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

As he sends his disciples into the world to proclaim his name, Jesus tells them to be bold. He tells them to be flexible. To be forgiving. To be faithful. As we enter this week, let's remember these instructions. It's good advice, in any century.
