TWENTY FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Today's Readings

First Reading:

God condemns the greedy who exploit the poor; He will not forget their injustice.

Amos 8:4-7

Psalm:

God is exalted above all yet cares for the lowly, raising and blessing them.

Psalm 113

Second Reading:

Pray for all people, including leaders; God desires salvation for all through Christ, calling believers to live holy, peaceful lives.

1 Timothy 2:1-8

Gospel:

Jesus teaches through the dishonest steward that true disciples must wisely steward resources, serving God faithfully, for no one can serve both God and wealth.

Luke 16:1-13

Dear Friends,

Religious indifferentism is the belief that all religions are equally valid paths to God or truth, or that it doesn't matter which faith one follows. It's a popular belief today, but one condemned by the Church as a heresy. St. Paul wrote to Timothy:

"God our savior...wills everyone to be saved and to come to knowledge of the truth. For there is one God. There is also one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus, who gave himself as ransom for all, (1 Timothy 2:3-5)."

God's desire is that each one of us be saved and come to knowledge of the truth. And the Truth is Jesus Christ. Jesus himself told his disciples, "I am the Way, the Truth and the Life. No one comes to the Father except through me." The mission of the Church is to preach this truth to the world. There is an urgency to this mission.

What, then, must we do?

- "Pray, lifting up holy hands, without anger or argument, (1 Timothy 2:8)."
- "Be trustworthy in very small matters and also in great ones, (Luke:16:10)."
- Care for the poor. (Amos 8)

These things we do, and the way we act toward God and others are not earning us salvation, but rather, ought to flow from our encounter with God and his grace – the very inner life of the Trinity. We receive that sanctifying grace through the worthy reception of the sacraments and actual grace through our virtuous acts.

God bless you,

Fr. Ed

P.S. Please keep our nation in prayer in a more intense way as seek to find inner peace after the murder of Charlie Kirk.

ENCOUNTER

World Day of Migrants & Refugees Oct 4-5, 2025

Exodus World Service will speak before the Masses on the October 4-5 weekend, which is the Catholic Church's 111th World Day of Migrants and Refugees.

Deb DaSilva from Exodus will be available after Mass for questions. She will give a short presentation in the Laramie Room after the 11:30 Mass on Exodus World Service and their mission to connect the Christian community with refugees.

One way to connect to a local refugee family is by collecting and delivering a Household Pack. A Household Pack is the paper and hygiene products a family continuously needs. Sign up through our link in next week's bulletin and newsletter.

Jesus taught us to welcome the stranger.

Volunteers Needed

Loaves & Fishes Ministry

Loaves and Fishes is in need of volunteers for any of the following:

- Pick up bread from Central Continental Bakery on Friday evening.
- Pick up soup from local restaurants on Saturday afternoon.
- Make approximately 125 lunches.
- Transport the donations (soup, bread, lunches) to the shelter by 5 pm on Saturday.

Please consider patronizing and thank the following businesses who regularly donate soup and bread: Egg Harbor, Peggy Kinnane's, and Coopers Hawk restaurants in Arlington Heights and Central Continental Bakery in Mount Prospect. The support received from these establishments is essential in the work of this ministry; feeding the hungry.

For over 30 years, the St. James community has reached out in support of the unhoused men and women in Chicago's Uptown Neighborhood.

The Loaves and Fishes Ministry provides an evening meal and a brown bag lunch for Women at Sarah's Circle and the men at Northside Housing. This ministry operates every Saturday beginning in October and continues through the last weekend in April.
