

SAINT JAMES PARISH

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS

Our group encountered Christ in a powerful way while serving alongside Hope of the Poor in Mexico City. In every meal shared, every smile exchanged, and every moment of presence we saw Jesus in the faces of those we served.

Today's Readings

First Reading:

Habakkuk laments injustice, but God assures a vision of justice will come; the righteous live by faith despite delay.

Habakkuk 1:2-3; 2:2-4

Psalm:

Worship the Lord with joy; heed His voice and do not harden your hearts.

Psalm 95

Second Reading:

Stir up God's gift, live boldly in faith, guard the truth through the Spirit, and share in suffering for the gospel.

2 Timothy 1:6-8, 13-14

Gospel:

Faith, even small, is powerful; disciples must obey God humbly, recognizing themselves as servants fulfilling their duty without boasting.

Luke 17:5-10

Dear Friends,

I am regularly reminded of the generosity of our parishioners, who give generously of themselves for the work of the parish. I have a dear friend who is a successful businessman and a devout Catholic. He told me years ago that his generosity was sparked by a desire to give back from the gifts the Lord has given him in his business. He has a deep understanding of our need to care for one another with the gifts God has given us.

During the capital campaign which we completed at the beginning of the summer, I was blessed to see the generosity and kindness of so many of our people. God has been good to us!

Every year, the Archdiocese of Chicago asks pastors to nominate a lay member of the parish to be recognized for the good work he or she has done for the parish. These folks receive the Christi Fidelis Award in recognition of their efforts.

In my experience, it's a real challenge to choose only one person for this honor – there are so many of you who give of yourselves willingly. I am so grateful.

Kathy Borresen, who has been a parishioner of St. James since her grade school days, has been a quiet but powerful presence at St. James Parish for decades. She faithfully lead our Environment and Art team with dedication, creativity, and an unmistakable love for both the Church and her faith as they decorated our lovely church each season.

Last Sunday, September 28, Kathy received the Christi Fidelis Award at Holy Name Cathedral from Cardinal Cupich. Well deserved! Thank you, Kathy, for your loving care of our church.

God bless you,

Fr. Ed

World Day of Migrants & Refugees Oct 4-5, 2025

Exodus World Service will speak before the Masses on the October 4-5 weekend, which is the Catholic Church's 111th World Day of Migrants and Refugees.

Deb DaSilva from Exodus will be available after Mass for questions. She will give a short presentation in the Laramie Room after the 11:30 Mass on Exodus World Service and their mission to connect the Christian community with refugees.

One way to connect to a local refugee family is by collecting and delivering a Household Pack. A Household Pack is the paper and hygiene products a family continuously needs. See the QR code below for sign up and a list of items.

Jesus taught us to welcome the stranger.
