Dear Friends,

Today on this solemnity of Christ the King at the 10:00 am Mass we officially welcome our OCIA Candidates and Catechumens in what is called the Rite of Acceptance.

These men and women have been meeting weekly since mid-September for formation and catechetical sessions as they discern and prepare for entrance into full communion with the Catholic Church. During Lent our group will attend a Mass for the Rite of Election at Holy Name Cathedral downtown. During the Rite of Election, those listed above will declare their intention to join the Church, their sponsors will testify to their commitment, and the bishop will "elect" them for the final stage of initiation. At Easter, they will receive the sacraments of Baptism (if they are not already baptized Christians), Confirmation, and Holy Communion.

I ask you to pray for these individuals by name as they continue this sacred journey. I also want to recognize and thank those who are accompanying them, as well as parishioner George Jurkowich, who is assisting me in coordinating the whole process, as well as teaching some sessions, and Father Paul and Father Michael, who are instructing our group on further topics.

Welcoming new members into the Church through the OCIA is a great joy and a powerful grace given to St. James. Thanks for supporting these candidates.

ANOINTING OF THE SICK: HOW

This is the final in a series of four articles exploring the source, meaning, presence and practical implications of the Anointing of the Sick, a Sacrament of the Church that brings us closer to God's mercy. We hope you will find them informative. Let our priests know if you have any questions.

When you or your loved one needs the Anointing of the Sick, there are several ways to arrange for the sacrament, depending on the situation.

If the person is in a hospital or nursing facility, or the individual is at home (whether in a house, apartment, or assisted-living residence) priests are available to visit and administer the sacrament in person.

If the situation is less dire, the sacrament may be given at church. Read on to discover how to arrange for the sacrament depending on the circumstance.

Emergency:

When the person is in danger of death due to an accident, a heart attack or something similar

Call the Parish Office at 224-345-7200. If it is during business hours, someone will pick up and answer the phone directly. If it is during off hours, or the receptionist has stepped away from the desk, you will hear the automated voice response. Please press "2" when prompted for a "medical emergency."

Speaking slowly and clearly, leave your full name, cell phone number, and basic information (who needs to be anointed, where is that person in terms of hospital or the home address).

Non-emergency:

When there is not a danger of death, and the anointing can wait for a little bit of time, such as later in the day, the next day or later in the week

Call the Parish Office during business hours to schedule. This is true whether the person is in the hospital or at a home.

Anticipated surgery

or an elderly person who is not in danger of death:

You may call the Parish Office during business hours or speak to a priest directly. Additionally, if a priest is not preoccupied immediately after Mass, he can often do so on a Sunday or weekday. Please feel free to ask, and the anointing can be done in church.

Hospice:

if your loved one is being placed in hospice

Please call the Parish Office number during business hours. It is best not to wait until right before the moment of death, in case a priest is not available at that time.

An anointing can be arranged at the beginning of hospice care so that there is time for a confession, as well as communion. If the person continues in hospice for a number of weeks, the sacraments can be given again at a later date if necessary.
