SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER (SUNDAY OF DIVINE MERCY)

Today's Readings

First Reading

Early believers devoted themselves to teaching, fellowship, prayer, and sharing; they lived in unity, praised God, and grew as the Lord added new members daily.

Acts 2:42-47

Second Reading

Through Christ's resurrection we have new birth and living hope; trials refine faith, leading to joy and salvation.

1 Peter 1:3-9

Gospel

The risen Jesus appears to disciples, gives peace and the Spirit; Thomas believes after seeing Him, and others are called to believe without seeing.

John 20:19-31

Today is Divine Mercy Sunday, the feast established by Pope John Paul II in the year 2000, and based on the spiritual visions of St. Faustina Kowalska, the Polish nun who described the image of Christ which is depicted in the Divine Mercy image. Join us today at 1:00 pm for confessions, at 2:00 pm for Mass, and 3:00 pm for the Chaplet of Divine Mercy, Benediction, and confessions.

Thank you to all who contributed to our celebrations of the Easter Triduum and Easter Sunday. The solemnity, beauty and reverence lived up to the excellence of our worship. I am grateful for all who gave of their time and energy and talent:

- maintenance men
- office staff
- ushers
- our music director, musicians, instrumentalists and choir members
- Katie Sowa, our liturgy assistant
- those who decorated the church
- sacristans
- collection counters
- those who prepared the Easter fire
- the clergy, including three visiting priests who took part

We will celebrate the Easter season until the solemn feast of Pentecost. What a beautiful time of year for the Church.

Finally, I thank you for your generosity and presence at our celebrations.

May the Risen Jesus bless you abundantly,

Fr. Ed

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

How does Christ prove himself to Thomas? Not by his face or his words, but by his wounds. So, when we look for God to show Himself in relief or in triumph, we must remember the wounds of Christ. This is where we find our salvation.

Reflect: Thomas needed concrete evidence before he would believe that Jesus had risen from the dead. What convinces you that Jesus is risen and alive?

Dear Lord,
Your redemption has been known in every age.
You have never stopped inviting us closer into your presence.
Fill us anew this Easter season,
bringing new hope, new life, and new light into our journey.
Amen.
