Spring brings Confirmation for our eighth graders. Bishop Perry confirmed nearly 150 young women and men from our school and religious education program.

The EDGE program had a fun send-off for the 8th graders. Thank you to all the adult volunteers who have mentored the students these past three years. God Bless!

Today's Readings

First Reading

Peter proclaims Jesus as Lord and Messiah; many repent, are baptized, and receive forgiveness and the gift of the Holy Spirit.

Acts 2:14a, 36-41

Second Reading

Christ suffered innocently, leaving an example; through His wounds we are healed and called to return to the Shepherd.

1 Peter 2:20b-25

Gospel

Jesus is the true shepherd and gate, leading His sheep to safety, abundant life, and protection from thieves.

John 10:1-10

Dear Friends,

One of the oldest paintings of Christ, in the Roman catacombs, represents Christ as carrying the injured, straying sheep gently on His shoulders back to the sheepfold. This is an image of Christ which has always appealed to Christians. We have Christ as our shepherd—He tells us so himself in today's gospel—and we do not resent being called sheep in this context. There is something guileless about a sheep, and at the same time a lot of foolishness! But with Christ as our shepherd and the "good shepherd" who is sincerely interested in the true welfare of His flock we have reason to rejoice.

- from The Sunday Readings by Fr. Kevin O'Sullivan, O.F.M.

Traditionally, this Sunday is called Good Shepherd Sunday, celebrating Jesus as the Good Shepherd, and praying for our shepherds—our priests—who are ordained to make present Christ the Head, along with his saving sacrifice and work of salvation.

Throughout my life, I have been blessed with good priests, starting with my uncle and the parish priests of my early years who introduced me to the beauty of our faith. As I grew older, the priests who taught in my high school and the seminary faculty helped to form me as a priest. I am very grateful for them. I trust that you have had important priests in your lives who have showed you the loving face of God.

I would like to share part of a message from Pope Leo XIV on this World Day of Prayer for Vocations:

A vocation, therefore, is not an immediate possession — something "given" once and for all. Instead, it is a path that unfolds much like life itself. The gift we have received must not only be protected but also nourished by a daily relationship with God in order to grow and bear fruit. "This is helpful, since it situates our whole life in relation to the God who loves us. It makes us realize that nothing is the result of pure chance but that everything in our lives can become a way of responding to the Lord, who has a wonderful plan for us."[7]

Dear brothers and sisters, dear young people, I encourage you to cultivate your personal relationship with God through daily prayer and meditation on the Word. Pause, listen and entrust yourselves. In this way, the gift of your vocation will mature, bringing you happiness and yielding abundant fruit for the Church and the world.

May the Virgin Mary, model of the interior acceptance of divine gifts and expert in prayerful listening, always accompany you on this journey!

God bless you,

Fr. Ed

St. Gianna Beretta Molla - Feast Day: April 28 (10/14/22 - 4/28/62)

Patron Saint of Mothers, Physicians, and Preborn Children

St. Gianna Beretta Molla

St. Gianna was a pediatric specialist, who, during her 4th pregnancy, was found to have a tumor in her uterus. Though encouraged to terminate, she chose the riskier option to preserve the life of her baby - to remove only the tumor. She died a week after baby Gianna was born. That daughter is now a geriatric specialist.

Dr. Gianna Emanuela Molla

St. Gianna, may your living acceptance of illness and death help us to know and do God's will in all things.

- Seamless, one-piece system keeps out leaves, pine needles, and debris
- Eliminates the risk of falling off a ladder to clean clogged gutters
- Durable, all-weather tested system not a flimsy attachment

*Guaranteed not to clog for as long as you own your home, or we'll clean your gutters for free.
