ARLINGTON HEIGHTS

Pilgrimage to Marytown

On Saturday, April 25 we were blessed to welcome over 50 participants for a beautiful time of prayer, community, and learning. From hearing the rich history shared by one of the brothers, to celebrating Mass together in the chapel, exploring the St. Kolbe museum, and praying the rosary in the peaceful rosary garden, we were able to learn and grow together in prayer.

Today's Readings

First Reading

The apostles appoint seven servants to meet needs, preserving prayer, ministry, unity, and the Church's growth.

Acts 6:1-7

Second Reading

Come to Christ, the living stone; become God's holy people, chosen to proclaim His marvelous light.

1 Peter 2:4-9

Gospel

Jesus comforts His disciples, declaring Himself the way to the Father and revealing God through His words and works.

John 14:1-12

Dear Friends,

St. James the Less, one of the twelve Apostles (known as Jacobus in ancient Greek) is called the "Less" to distinguish him from the Apostle James the Great (or elder), with "Less" meaning younger or shorter rather than less important.

James the Less shares today's feast day (May 3) with St. Philip the Apostle. St. James is believed to be the same person who is called "James the Just" and James, the brother of Jesus in the Gospel, where the word brother in Semitic languages also means cousin or kinsman. He is also identified as James, the son of Alphaeus. His mother was Mary of Clopas, who was at the foot of the Cross when Jesus was crucified.

St. James became the bishop of Jerusalem, and preached the Gospel and led the Church there for 30 years. He faced opposition from the Pharisees, who killed him around 62 A.D. by throwing him off the parapet of the Temple and then stoning and clubbing him to death.

There are four identifications of James as the son of Mary of Clopas in the Gospels:

- "Mary, the mother of James and Joseph" (Matthew 27:56);
- "Mary, the mother of James the younger and of Joses" (Mark 15:40) ("James the younger" here has also been translated "James the less");
- "Mary, the mother of James" (Mark 16:1 and Luke 24:10).

This Christian witness, or martyr, is our parish's patron saint. He gave his life for love of the Lord. He spent decades of his life preaching the Truth of the Gospel, and calling people to conversion to Jesus Christ. When we speak of being and making disciples, St. James the Less can be our model. St. James, pray for us.

God bless you,

Fr. Ed

Welcome! We're so glad you're here.

For anyone who is curious about the Catholic faith, "The Table" meets the second Sunday of each month after the 10:00 a.m. Mass in the Teen Room (LL of the church). This is a time to ask questions and engage in conversation with others. The next meeting is May 10. All are welcome!
