PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Today's Readings

First Reading
John sees God's faithful people from every nation worshiping before His throne, cleansed by the Lamb's blood and victorious through faith.
Revelation 7:2-4, 9-14

Second Reading
God calls us His beloved children; when Christ appears, we will become like Him, inspiring us to live in purity and hope.
1 John 3:1-3

Gospel
Jesus teaches the Beatitudes, blessing the humble, merciful, peacemakers, and those who seek righteousness, promising them God's kingdom and eternal reward.
Matthew 5:1-12a

Dear Friends,

Our 32nd annual gala, Jubilation, is this Friday, November 6, at the Metropolis Ballroom in downtown Arlington Heights. The theme of this year's gala is "1926 to Forever – 100 Years of Lighting the Way." This year we are celebrating 100 years of St. James School, as well as the rich history of our parish. Jubilation is our major fundraiser each year, and supports the many outreaches and ministries of the parish, including the parish school. Our people have always been very generous in assuring that these important efforts continue. Thank you for your support.

These first days of November remind us of the reality of our mortality, and the salvific mission of Jesus. Today is the Solemnity of All Saints, celebrating all of the saints in Heaven, in particular those who have not been officially canonized. We all know saintly people in our lives who have passed away. Some of them are now saints, and we ask for their prayers.

All Souls Day is November 2, or "the Commemoration of the Faithful Departed." On this day the Church prays for all the souls in Purgatory, the state of purification of those who are being prepared to enter the presence of God. Although we pray for the dead at mass every day, All Souls Day is especially dedicated to the dead. St. Ambrose of Milan wrote of the dead, "we have loved them dearly during life; let us not now abandon them in death until we have accompanied them by our prayers into the house of God." Praying for the dead is a true act of love and one of the spiritual works of mercy. In 2 Maccabees 12:46 we read, "It is therefore a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead, that they may be loosed from sins."

Please join us for our annual Requiem Mass on All Souls day, this Monday evening at 7:00 pm. Mr. Tamaron Conseur will direct the Requiem by Maurice Duruflé, a powerful musical offering to God on behalf of our deceased parishioners and loved ones.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and may the perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace.

God bless you,

Fr. Ed

ALL SOULS MASS - MONDAY EVENING

On Monday, November 2 we will honor the dead in celebration of All Souls Day with a special Mass in the church at 7:00 pm. Ten minutes prior to the start of Mass, at 6:50 pm, we will begin reading the names of those we have lost in the past year. This Mass will feature exceptional music from the Sacred Sounds Concert series; the Requiem by Maurice Duruflé. We hope you will attend this moving tribute to all those who have gone before us.

WE REMEMBER WITH LOVE

We pray especially on All Souls Day for those who died and were buried from St. James Parish in the past year. May they rest in peace. Requiescat In Pace.

Thanks, God!

How many ways did we say THANK YOU to God during Mass today? Listen for the times we say it in prayer, hear it in Scripture, sing it in song, or show it with our bodies like when we fold our hands.

DO IT!

Join the Parish Prayer Pledge for this month on gratitude by signing our banner in the gathering space and collect some great family prayer resources!

Seven Themes of Catholic Social Teaching

The Church's social teaching is a rich treasure of wisdom about building a just society and living lives of holiness amidst the challenges of modern society. Modern Catholic social teaching has been articulated through a tradition of papal, conciliar, and episcopal documents. Join in learning about the seven themes of Catholic Social Teaching. One theme will be featured each month.

3 Call to Family, Community, and Participation

The person is not only sacred but also social. How we organize our society—in economics and politics, in law and policy—directly affects human dignity and the capacity of individuals to grow in community. Marriage and the family are the central social institutions that must be supported and strengthened, not undermined. We believe people have a right and a duty to participate in society, seeking together the common good and well-being of all, especially the poor and vulnerable.

Artwork by Brother Mickey McGrath

Sacred Scripture

"This is the commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother." 1 John 4:21

Sacred Tradition

"The common good requires the social well-being and development of the group itself... It should make accessible to each what is needed to lead a truly human life: food, clothing, health, work, education and culture, suitable information, the right to establish a family, and so on." Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 1908

Catholic Social Teaching in Action

The USCCB launched the You Are Not Alone initiative – a national effort to offer hope, accompaniment, and practical support to immigrants and their families facing fear and instability due to immigration enforcement in the United States. The initiative focuses on actions like emergency and family support, accompaniment and pastoral care, solidarity through public prayer, and education about Church teaching and immigrants' rights.

Help Us Build Communities in God's Vision of Justice

Holy Spirit, We praise and thank you!
You anoint us to bring glad tidings to the poor proclaim liberty to captives recover sight for the blind free the oppressed and build communities in keeping with God's vision of justice.
Show us how to be light of the world salt of the earth seeds that sprout love and leaven that infuses humanity with the desire to promote human dignity and solidarity.
Help us to listen so that those in poverty can lead our efforts to proclaim a more hopeful vision liberate captives from injustice heal the blindness of the powerful free us all from self-centeredness and build community to overcome poverty.
Amen.
