Today's Readings

First Reading
Wisdom is radiant and accessible to those who seek her earnestly, guiding them toward understanding, peace, and a life of righteousness.
Wisdom 6:12-16

Second Reading
Paul encourages believers to grieve with hope, trusting that the dead in Christ will rise and all believers will reunite with the Lord forever.
1 Thessalonians 4:13-18

Gospel
Jesus urges believers to stay alert and prepared, for the Son of Man will come at an unexpected hour.
Matthew 25:1-13

Dear Friends,

In a particular and intentional way, the month of November focuses on those who have died. The end of November is the end of the Liturgical Year with a new year starting the First Sunday of Advent – the four-week penitential season before Christmas. The Church uses this end of the year period as a time to think of the end of life and the end of all things and the great hope that our earthly end is transition into a new life in God's heavenly reality. We pray for and give thanks for those who have died. We pray in a special way for the souls in Purgatory – that process of purification which God offers us so that we may enter into His eternal presence.

Last Monday, All Souls Day, we offered a beautiful Requiem Mass which also included the Requiem of Maurice Duruflé, the choral piece directed by Tam Conseur with Leah Kang playing organ. It was one of the offerings of our Sacred Sounds concert series. We prayed for all those who were buried from St. James over the last year.

Jubilation was held Friday evening at the Metropolis Ballroom. This is our major fundraiser of the year, supporting the many apostolates and ministries of our parish as well as St. James School. Sincere thanks to Jacob and Betsy Starr, and Megan and Matthew Bartling, this year's chaircouples. Thank you to Julie Jacobson, our Development Director for leading this event, and to all who so generously supported the event. It allows us to continue the good work of so many outreaches.

Three weeks from today the season of Advent begins. Our attention is focused on two realities: the joyful commemoration of the birth of Jesus, and our expectation of the Second Coming and the end times. Let's be prepared, as the parable of the wise and foolish virgins reminds us.

God bless you,

Fr. Ed

FAMILY FIND IT!

Tabernacle

It's a gold case. It's a tent. It's a dwelling place. This special container can be found in all Catholic churches. The tabernacle holds the real presence of Jesus! We are so blessed by the sacrifice of our Lord to have Him with us. Once you receive Christ in the Eucharist, you are a living tabernacle too!

DO IT!

Spend time with the Blessed Sacrament this week.

ENTER - PRAISE - REPENT - PETITION

Dear Jesus, You have made Yourself present in the Blessed Sacrament because You thirst for me. O dear Lord, I also thirst for You. I want to be one with You. I bow down before You with faith, hope, and love, from the depths of my heart. I worship You. Amen.

ANOINTING OF THE SICK

This is the first in a series of four articles exploring the source, meaning, presence and practical implications of the Anointing of the Sick, a Sacrament of the Church that brings us closer to God's mercy. We hope you will find them informative. Let our priests know if you have any questions.

Why does the Church Anoint?

Jesus miraculously cured the sick and empowered his apostles to do the same: "He summoned the Twelve and gave them power and authority over all demons and to cure diseases, and he sent them to proclaim the kingdom of God and to heal [the sick]" (Luke 9:1-2). While sickness is not a direct punishment for one's personal sins, it is a reminder of our human condition because of Original Sin. For that reason, and many others, the miraculous cures that Jesus works in and through his apostles and their successors in the Church are a visible sign of hope that he will cure all that ails us, including our sins, granting us everlasting life.

What Scripture Says About Anointing

The Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick is that tangible encounter with Jesus for spiritual and physical healing. We read the following in the letter of St. James (the Less), our patron saint:

Is anyone among you sick? He should summon the presbyters of the church, and they should pray over him and anoint [him] with oil in the name of the Lord, and the prayer of faith will save the sick person, and the Lord will raise him up. If he has committed any sins, he will be forgiven. (James 5:14-15)

Who Can Annoint?

The successors of the apostles are the bishops. The presbyters, or priests, are those who cooperate in the bishop's priestly ministry. While diaconal ministry is a very important part of Church life, diaconal ordination does not impart a priestly sacramental ministry, and thus deacons do not anoint.

The Sacrament of Anointing takes place within a liturgical celebration of prayers and readings, often including a sacramental confession. The sacrament itself occurs when the bishop or priest, laying hands on the head of the person, anoints the forehead and then the palms of the hands saying: (head) "Through this holy anointing may the Lord in his love and mercy help you with the grace of the Holy Spirit;" (hands) "May the Lord who frees you from sin save you and raise you up."

The Form and the Matter

These words are the form of the sacrament, and the matter is the anointing with the sacred oil, called the Oil of the Sick (Oleum Infirmorum). This oil is natural olive oil blessed by the Bishop at the Chrism Mass on Holy Thursday. Though, if needed, the priest may bless the oil during the ritual itself.

Wisdom from the Catechism

The Catechism of the Catholic Church summarizes the effects of the grace of this sacrament:

- the uniting of the sick person to the passion of Christ, for his own good and that of the whole Church;

- the strengthening, peace, and courage to endure in a Christian manner the sufferings of illness or old age;

- the forgiveness of sins, if the sick person was not able to obtain it through the sacrament of Penance;

- the restoration of health, if it is conducive to the salvation of his soul;

- the preparation for passing over to eternal life. (CCC #1532)
