OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Today's Readings

First Reading
God promises to shepherd His people, seeking the lost, caring for the weak, healing the injured, and judging fairly.
Ezekiel 34:11-12, 15-17

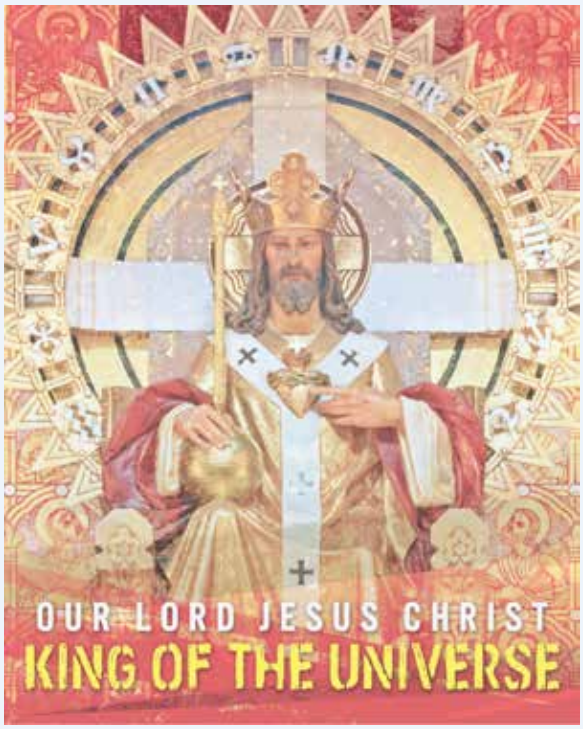

Second Reading
Christ's resurrection defeats death; He reigns over all enemies until everything is under God's authority, bringing eternal victory and life.
1 Corinthians 15:20-28

Gospel
Jesus teaches that serving those in need is serving Him, and our compassion toward others determines our eternal judgment.
Matthew 25:31-46

Dear Friends,

The liturgical year 2026 draws to a close today with the Solemnity of Christ the King.

The Kingship of Christ is a core Christian belief - that Jesus Christ is the King of kings and Lord of lords, holding supreme authority over heaven, earth, and all creation.

Pope Pius XI instituted the Feast of Christ the King in 1925 with his encyclical Quas Primas to affirm Christ's dominion over human society and to combat rising secularism.

The Catholic tradition teaches the Social Kingship of Christ - that Christ holds a right of influence over both individuals and the temporal/social order, guiding people toward their spiritual and moral common good.

The Scripture readings for today's Mass highlight what may seem paradoxical in our understanding of the Kingship of Jesus Christ. Ezekiel describes the Lord as a tender shepherd lovingly caring for his sheep – seeking out the lost, bringing the straying back, binding the injured, healing the sick.

St. Paul in 1 Corinthians proclaims the crucified and Risen One who in his sacrificial death and resurrection has won the salvation of the human race. His priestly act on the altar of the Cross conquered death and offers new life. Both St. Paul and today's Gospel reading (Matthew 25) proclaim the Final Judgment at the end of the age. Here Christ comes in full glory, judges and claims his faithful disciples for himself and presents them to the Father, while those who have rejected him receive their just due. All of these are integral to his Kingship. Thus, the royal crown and the Crown of Thorns; the priestly vestments and the body stripped of his garments in the brutality of the crucifixion; the regal appearance and the wounds of his death.

Following this solemn feast, we will enter into the penitential season of Advent, preparing for both the end times and final judgment, and the celebration of his birth as a man in Bethlehem.

Vivat Christus Rex! Long live Christ the King!

Fr. Ed

THANK YOU FOR YOUR GENEROSITY

BEING DISCIPLES. MAKING DISCIPLES.

Ut Vitam Habeant | SAINT JAMES PARISH RESPECT LIFE MINISTRY | That They May Have Life

Rose for Life

A fresh rose is placed by Our Blessed Mother every Saturday - a symbol of Our Parish Commitment to respecting all human life from conception until natural death.

To arrange to sponsor a rose in honor or memory of a loved one, text (847) 420-0158. A small donation for the Respect Life ministry may be made, if you choose.

Please allow 2 weeks when selecting a date.
It will be announced in the bulletin that week.

ANOINTING OF THE SICK

The Anointing of the Sick is a Sacrament of the Church that brings us closer to God's mercy.

Let our priests know if you have any questions.

When you or your loved one needs the Anointing of the Sick, there are several ways to arrange for the sacrament, depending on the situation.

If the person is in a hospital or nursing facility, or the individual is at home (whether in a house, apartment, or assisted-living residence) priests are available to visit and administer the sacrament in person.

If the situation is less dire, the sacrament may be given at church. Read on to discover how to arrange for the sacrament depending on the circumstance.

Emergency:
When the person is in danger of death due to an accident, a heart attack or something similar

Call the Parish Office at 224-345-7200. If it is during business hours, someone will pick up and answer the phone directly. If it is during off hours, or the receptionist has stepped away from the desk, you will hear the automated voice response. Please press "2" when prompted for a "medical emergency."

Speaking slowly and clearly, leave your full name, cell phone number, and basic information (who needs to be anointed, where is that person in terms of hospital or the home address).

Non-emergency:
When there is not a danger of death, and the anointing can wait for a little bit of time, such as later in the day, the next day or later in the week

Call the Parish Office during business hours to schedule. This is true whether the person is in the hospital or at a home.

Anticipated surgery or an elderly person who is not in danger of death:

You may call the Parish Office during business hours or speak to a priest directly. Additionally, if a priest is not preoccupied immediately after Mass, he can often do so on a Sunday or weekday. Please feel free to ask, and the anointing can be done in church.

if your loved one is being placed in hospice

Please call the Parish Office number during business hours. It is best not to wait until right before the moment of death, in case a priest is not available at that time.

An anointing can be arranged at the beginning of hospice care so that there is time for a confession, as well as communion. If the person continues in hospice for a number of weeks, the sacraments can be given again at a later date if necessary.

The Lord of the Feast +

You give good gifts.
Yet we do not always see them,
nor recognize them for the blessings they are.

Free us from narrow, earthly vision.
Open our eyes to your presence and the possibilities you place before us.

You give good gifts.
Help us receive them with gratitude and trust.

You give good gifts.

When you bless us with abundance,
fill our hearts with joyful generosity.
Teach us to give freely and selflessly,
making room for even more of your grace work through us.

Prepare our hearts to receive all that you offer.
Shape us in your goodness,
so that, reflecting your love,

we too may give good gifts to others.

You give good gifts.

Amen.
